

Nguyễn Thành Nguyễn

FLUTTER DEVELOPER

My short-term have a stable job, become an excellent employee, accumulate more experience, practice skills to handle the job effectively, accurately and quickly.

My long-term goal is to explore different areas of technology and work to address the area of expertise that I want to study. I want to be an expert in a particular field of mobile programming in the long term, but I know the first step is to build a solid foundation and study the basics of programming.
