1.4. Grade & Title Policy

A simple yet comprehensive grading architecture for stacking jobs as per the value they drive for business whilst enabling growth opportunities despite a lean structure for leader/expert paths and holistic criteria to eliminate bias and improve transparency.

Features

1.4.1. Grades

- 1.4.1.1 Jazz's grading architecture is structured around six job levels beneath CEO i.e. L1 to L6.
- 1.4.1.2 Leadership roles are defined at job grade Level L3. For business reasons some regional roles may be required to assume a supervisory role at job grade Level L2.
- 1.4.1.3 In order to allow enriched career experience and growth, grade levels sufficiently enable parallel expert and leadership paths.
- 1.4.1.4 Job Grades determination for new job role/headcount will follow an independent external assessment coupled with internal data points in connection to business context, org design and already existing similar internal roles for decision relevant to organizational perspective.
- 1.4.1.5 Internal criteria for placing a role in a particular job grade will follow certain descriptors. (details in annexure)

1.4.2. Titles

1.4.2.1 The job titling nomenclature follows a standard approach for leadership and expert paths, whereby titles depict the actual role responsibilities and are aligned with respective divisional/departmental heads.

| Job Grades | Managerial Track(People Leaders) | Expert Track(Individual Contributors) |  |
|------------|--------------------------------------|---|--|
| L5/L6      | Chief                                |   |  |
| L4/L5      | Head                                 | Principal Consultant                      |  |
| L3/L4      | Head/Stream Head                     | Advisor/Strategist                        |  |
| L2/L3      | Manager/Lead                         | Expert/Partner                            |  |
| L1         |                                      | Specialist/Analyst                        |  |

1.4.2.2 For business requirements, the front-line roles may follow a different titling convention as deemed fit by business and approved by respective HOD in consultation with People & Organization. (e.g. Area Sales Manager, Territory Sales Supervisor, Business Consultant etc.)

Useful Notes

- A people leader can supervise individual contributors sitting at the same grade level.
- An intra grade reporting within the managerial track is discouraged.
- The expert track allows growth up to grade level L4.
